

artificial lake is being constructed on the east side of the grove. Upon this lake several boats will be placed. In addition to holding the camp-meeting, the grounds are used as a summer resort for many families.

Public exercises at the stand begin at 10 a. m., and at 2 and 7 1/2 p. m. Family worship is conducted in all the tents at 6:30 a. m. At 10 p. m. all religious services cease, and persons not having accommodations on the grounds are requested to leave.

The service began on Tuesday, the Rev. Ruben Reynolds, age 26, conducting the evening services. Since then the services have been held with regularity.

though the attendance, compared with that of former years, is small. Elders Griswold, Pease, and Merwin, who are in charge of the meeting, anticipate a large attendance. On Wednesday the Rev. Wm. T. Hill preached the morning sermon, on the Holy Spirit. The afternoon sermon was preached by the Rev. T. B. Merwin. The evening sermon was by the Rev. C. T. Mallory of Cypress Hills. The Rev. F. T. Tower of the Fairbanks at Greenpoint preached on Thursday, and was assisted by the Rev. Wm. Lawrence of Jamestown. The Rev. Dr. J. C. of Brooklyn conducted the afternoon services. The meeting will close next Thursday.

A new German weekly newspaper, Die Wacht am Hudson, began its career last Saturday in Jersupport the principles of the Republican party "as far as they favor true progress," and calls upon the Germans in America to prove themselves worthy of all the dignities of citizenship by taking an earnest and sincere part in all political reforms; by determined opposition to all dishonest governments and monopolies, and by securing, by their diffused and independent voting, a deserved place for the German language and culture in the United States. He reiterates these principles, and by the merit of its first number, the Wacht am Hudson, gains our good wishes for its future, and must secure the support of that great body of thinking Germans that gains influence
